

PRINCESS HONORED

ONE HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY OF
PRINCESS KIL-SQUA-AH CELE-BRATED AT ROANOKE, INDI-ANA, TODAY.

Huntington, Ind., July 4.—There were great "doings" at Roanoke, a neat little village about seven miles from here, today and large crowds from the neighborhood districts were gathered there to attend the special celebration of two historical events, the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence and the one hundredth birthday of Kil-squa-ah (Rising Sun), a princess of the royal blood of the Miami, one of the most powerful Indian tribes which once roamed through the Middle West. The actual centenary of the Miami princess was on May 25, but it was decided to postpone the celebration of the day until the Glorious Fourth.

The entire population of Roanoke and the surrounding country turned out to take part in the celebration and to do honor to the princess, who lives on a forty-acre farm on the outskirts of Roanoke. The program of the exercises included music and singing of patriotic songs, the reading of the Declaration of Independence and an address by the Rev. J. R. Quinlan on the Indian days of the past, with special reference to the history of the Miami tribe and the famous ancestors of Princess Kil-squa-ah.

The princess was born on the banks of Little river, not far from Huntington about a hundred years ago, and for seventy-five years has lived in Roanoke. Her grandfather was Little Turtle, the famous fighting chief of the Miami. On her grandfather's side the princess is also related to Al-go-ma-qua, who married Captain Holmes, a soldier of the United States and whose descendants still live in this part of the country. Her father was Wa-pa-mun-qua and her husband, who died many years ago, was Anthony Revard, a French trader, who settled in this locality more than thirty years ago. The princess is still comparatively young and vigorous for her age, but cannot do much work on her farm. For a number of years Dr. Koontz, of Roanoke, and his wife have taken care of the old Indian princess. The princess retains a remarkably good memory for the early days of her life and, when in the mood, tells many interesting stories about the primitive Indian life in the Middle West a hundred years ago.

FRANCISCO KIDNAPED

MAN WITH A HISTORY AND WHO DID—GOOD WORK IN CONTI-NENTAL ARMY, REMEMBERED
BY NORTH CAROLINA.

Guilford Courthouse, N. C., July 4.—Representatives of patriotic societies and numerous other persons took part here today in the unveiling of a tablet in honor of the memory of Peter Francisco, a private in the Continental army. The exercises were held at the Guilford battle ground, where the address of the day was delivered by Major B. F. Dixon, state auditor of North Carolina.

Peter Francisco, according to history and tradition, was a most remarkable man in many respects. He is believed to have been brought to America and abandoned at five years of age, probably having been kidnaped from Portugal. At the beginning of the revolution he enlisted as a private. He was a giant in stature and it is said that General Washington had a special sword six feet long made for him.

With this sword, at the battle of Guilford Courthouse, Francisco is said to have performed a most remarkable mal rainfall for June is 3.82. The driest month of June during the long period in which records have been kept was in 1896, when the total rainfall was 0.71. The wettest June was in 1892, when 9.77 inches of rain fell. The temperature for last month averaged 78, while the normal temperature for the month is 78.9. June averages in temperature has varied but little during the past thirty-six years, the lowest average being 73, in 1903; the highest was 82, in 1896. The past month there were fourteen clear days, fifteen partly cloudy days, and one day was designed as cloudy.

TWO THOUSAND CARS

Of Peaches Will Move From the East Texas Section.

Two thousand cars of Elberta peaches is the crop expected from the Jacksonville and East Texas fruit district this year, it is stated. Already, according to authentic information, 1,700 cars of tomatoes and early peaches have been transported to points east. The crop this year is said to be much above the average in yield. The freight movement in Elbertas is expected to begin about July 5.

The Weather in June. A bulletin has just been issued from the local weather office, showing temperatures, precipitation, etc., for the month of June since 1874, when the first record was kept by the Palestine office. The total precipitation for June, 1910, was 1.49, which is reported as 2.33 below normal, making the past month a very dry one. The nor-

Champ Clark of Missouri, minority leader in the national house of representatives, delivered the principal address at Tammany Hall's Fourth of July celebration. Mr. Clark discussed democracy and the political situation generally.

FARMER'S WIFE HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do." "Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors."

"You don't know half how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have. Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good."

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old. Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui.
